WHAT IS THE DUTY OF CHRISTIANS TO AMERICANS?

The speech of President Lincoln on the 4th of April will forever live in the history of the world as the finest example of greatness in a man. The address of the President was a great speech, and indeed the great speech of a great man. It was the speech of a man who has been informed by the great truths of the gospel, and who has been influenced by the highest and most noble principles of the Christian religion.

The speech was eloquent and sublime, and it was also practical and useful. It was a speech that showed the real value of the Christian religion, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American people. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American nation, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American people, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government.

The speech of President Lincoln was a speech that showed the real value of the Christian religion, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American people. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American nation, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American people, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government.

The speech of President Lincoln was a speech that showed the real value of the Christian religion, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American people. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American nation, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government. The speech was a speech that showed the real value of the American people, and it was a speech that showed the real value of the American government.